

MARCHIOLI COLLECTIVE IMPACT IDEATION COMPETITION

Frequently Asked Questions

QUESTION 1:

Who can enter the competition? Can more than one idea be submitted?

Any UCF full-time faculty or staff member can enter. Yes, the survey can be filled out multiple times.

QUESTION 2:

What is the purpose of this competition and how will the ideas be used?

All ideas submitted will be provided to the teams who are currently developing action plans to achieve priority goals outlined in the Collective Impact Strategic Plan.

QUESTION 3:

Can the submitter continue to publish on and/or submit new manuscripts, other publications, or grant proposals about the idea now and/or into the future?

An idea that is submitted to the competition becomes the sole property of UCF and may be used by the university in any way that will advance UCF. However, UCF will not assert its ownership rights over ideas developed for the intended purpose of disseminating the results of academic research or scholarly activities such as books, articles, presentations, or electronic and digital media, which have been used or will be used to secure grant funding, provided that any external funding does not infringe upon the university's right to use the idea.

QUESTION 4:

How do I enter the competition?

Visit the Collective Impact Strategic Plan website at www.ucf.edu/strategic-planning and click on "Award Guidelines". These guidelines provide a summary of the Collective Impact Strategic Plan, list all priority metrics and strategies, and step-by-step instructions on how to enter the competition.

1. Review the Award Guidelines to view the thematic areas and each area's priority metrics and strategies.
2. Select a priority metric and affiliated strategies.
3. Develop your idea for an initiative, program, or project (in 500 words or less) and provide the rationale for why it will work (in 500 words or less).
4. Click the button "View Application and Submit" to enter your idea.

QUESTION 5:

Can I submit my idea after the Feb. 3, 2017 deadline?

Unfortunately, no. However, if you would like to submit an idea after Feb. 3 in support of our collective efforts to achieve the priority metrics, please send it by email to Dr. Lisa Guion Jones, Associate Provost for Strategy and Special Assistant to the President (lisa.jones@ucf.edu).
