ADMISSION AND FINANCIAL AID

APPLY TO UCF

ADMISSION

We encourage prospective transfer students to apply to UCF early as space is limited. By applying early, students may benefit from increased scholarship availability, as well as a faster response time.

TRANSFER APPLICATION DEADLINE

FALL	SPRING	SUMMER
JUL 1	NOV 1	MAR 1

WHEN TO APPLY

Students can apply to UCF before they have received an A.A. or articulated A.S. degree. Applying one semester before your planned entry term will ease your transition and may provide you with an earlier decision. It will also give you plenty of time to register for orientation and pursue financial aid opportunities.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply online at admissions.ucf.edu. Be sure to submit the signature page and residency affidavit along with the nonrefundable $30 application fee.

TRANSFER ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission is offered on a space-available basis, so apply early. UCF operates on a rolling admissions basis. Students are typically notified of a decision within two to four weeks from the completion of their application. Applicants must meet admission criteria that is determined by the number of transferable college credits completed before enrollment at UCF.

admissions.ucf.edu/apply/transfer

GPA REQUIREMENTS*

All transfer applicants must be in good academic standing at their home institution. Transfer applicants must have a minimum 2.0 GPA to be considered for admission.

A higher GPA is strongly recommended to be competitive in our applicant pool. You must meet the admission foreign language requirement. See admissions.ucf.edu/apply/transfer. Your overall academic GPA will be recalculated by UCF on all previous coursework. In calculating this GPA, UCF recognizes a plus or minus grading system. Grade forgiveness is honored only if it has been awarded as part of an A.A. degree (or state articulated A.S. degree program) from a Florida public community/state college or university.

Some programs at UCF are designated as “limited access” or “restricted access.” Selective admission criteria are used to determine a student’s admissibility into these programs, and an additional application may be required. To view admission criteria for limited or restricted access programs, visit the Undergraduate Catalog (catalog.ucf.edu) or contact the department of your major.

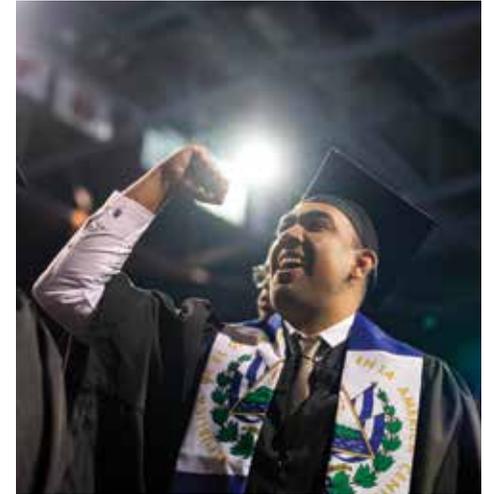

After you have been offered admission, you will receive a transfer summary report of accepted transfer credits. You must attend a mandatory one-day orientation program where you will meet academic advisors who will review your transferred coursework and help you schedule classes.

Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.*

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AND SCHOLARSHIPS

More than $478 million in merit- and need-based assistance is awarded annually to students. You must be admitted before being considered for financial assistance. All students must file or renew the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for aid. Begin the financial aid application process in October, and submit the FAFSA by the Dec. 1 priority date. A limited number of scholarships are available to transfer students who have earned an A.A. degree from a Florida public community/state college. You can access scholarship and financial aid information at:
