- Read carefully and complete this verification packet in black or blue ink.
- Please refer to your SAR (Student Aid Report) when answering the questions. Any discrepancy may need an explanation and additional documentation.
- Please answer your questions as of the date you and your parents signed the FAFSA.
- If a question does not apply to you or your parent/s, mark the answer as zero or N/A (not applicable).
- Do not skip any questions. If you leave any section blank, this form may be deemed incomplete and result in the delay of processing aid.

Below is information & instructions for whom to include in the Household, as well as for the "Name of College field.

Who is a parent (for the FAFSA)?:

For the FAFSA, "Parent" refers to your biological and/or adoptive parents (as well as your step-parent if that person is currently married to your "Parent")

The following are NOT considered to be a "legal parent (for the FAFSA):"

- ☐ Grandparents, foster parents, legal guardians, aunts and uncles are NOT considered parents unless they have legally adopted you.
- Any person who is not married to your parent and who is not a legal or biological parent.

A. If Parent Marital Status is:

- Single
- Divorced
- Separated As of the date the FAFSA was completed, the parents were not living together for an indefinite period of time and the marriage is severed.
- Widowed

Include the following in the Household

- Yourself (the student)
- Your parent The responsible parent is the parent with whom you lived the most during the 12 months before your financial aid application was signed. If you did not live with either parent, or if you lived with each parent an equal number of days (including zero days), your responsible parent is the parent who provided you the most support in the most recent 12-month period. Support means gifts, loans, housing, food, clothing, car, money, medical and dental care, payment of college costs, etc.
- Your parent's other children IF
  - your parent will provide more than 50% of the children's support from July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022 OR
  - The children attending college would be required to provide parent information when completing the FAFSA
- Other people currently living with your parent for whom your parent currently provides and will continue to provide at least 50% of their support from July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022.

DO NOT Include the following:

- Foster Children
- · Any child your parent is paying child support for

B. If Parent Marital Status is:

- o Married or Remarried, OR
- o Unmarried and Both Parents LIVING TOGETHER

Include the following in the Household

- Yourself (the student)
- > BOTH of your parents (as listed on the FAFSA)
  - If the parent you are listing remarried, please list your parent and step-parent.
    - You are required to provide your step-parent's information in all sections of this form and provide verification of tax information for both your parent and step-parent.
- Your parents' other children IF
  - Your parents will provide more than 50% of the children's support from July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022 - OR
  - The children attending college would be required to provide parent information when completing the FAFSA
- Other people currently living with your parents for whom your parents currently provide and will continue to provide more than 50% of their support from July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022.

DO NOT Include the following:

- Foster Children
- Any child your parent is paying child support for

Instructions for completing "ATTENDING COLLEGE"

On your FAFSA application, you were asked to identify the number of people attending college for the 2021 – 2022 aid year. The number in college should include any household member who:

- Will be enrolled at least half-time at an eligible postsecondary education institution at any time between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022
- Will be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program
- THE NUMBER IN COLLEGE SHOULD NOT INCLUDE YOUR PARENT(S)

For each person who meets the above criteria, indicate the name of the college. If the college person is attending UCF – be sure to also list that person's UCF ID.

NOTE: We may require additional documentation if we have reason to believe that the information regarding the household members enrolled in eligible postsecondary educational institutions is inaccurate.
