Transient Notification Forms

Select a form based on the type of college / university you will attend as a transient student.

Florida public college / university

If attending a Florida public community/state college or university you will only need to complete the Transient Student Admission Application at www.FLVC.org under “Apply”.

Use the button below to get the form

Transient Student Admission Application

Go to www.FloridaShines.org

Florida private or non-Florida college / university

If attending any college or university other than a Florida public institution please complete the Transient Notification Form

Use the button below to get the form

Transient Notification Form

Do Not Print This Form