President's Leadership Council

Goal

To serve as ambassadors for, and representatives of, the University of the Central Florida by supporting the work of the Office of the President.

Purpose

PLC members will extend the role of the presidency through their voice, contributions and values. They will represent the diverse, energetic and creative identity of the University of Central Florida while using this platform to intentionally develop personal leadership skills and enhance the campus community.

Expectations

As a member of the President's Leadership Council, students will engage in two essential roles – ambassador and advisor – while developing critical leadership skills. Activities and events related to these roles are listed below and will challenge students to grow professionally and personally. By participating in these activities each member will complete 125 hours of service, training and event work.
