Affordable Education

UCF Online offers significant cost savings to students by waiving some campus-based fees. Students seeking an undergraduate degree can save $33.09 per credit hour. Students seeking a graduate degree can save $42.33 per credit hour. That’s a savings of 15 and 4 percent respectively. In addition, several of UCF’s graduate online programs have established special costs for both instate and out-of-state students. Earn the same high-quality degree for less. For more information on UCF tuition and fees, visit ucf.edu/online/costs.

UCF’s innovative online programs expand access to a high-value degree, allowing more people to unleash their potential and achieve their dreams.”

ELIZABETH A. DOOLEY

UCF’s Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
UCF Online is unique in that it removes classroom-bound limitations while preserving interactions with instructors and other students through creative teaching techniques, and expands access to our diverse student population.

AMANDA GROFF
Associate Lecturer and Online Coordinator
Department of Anthropology

As a resident of Sarasota, Florida, there were no creative programs near me that caught my interest. UCF’s online program has been convenient, affordable, and given me an opportunity to pursue something that would have otherwise been a mere daydream.
