

WHERE TALENT AND OPPORTUNITY MEET

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

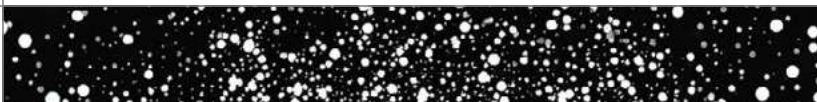

STUDENT & FACULTY ENGAGEMENT

At UCF, partnership is more than a buzzword — it's why we're here. We were founded to fuel the burgeoning space industry. And we've since grown into one of the nation's leading research universities, propelled by our close collaborations with industry and community partners. In return, we offer you access to fresh ideas, emerging trends and a seat at the table to shape what's next.

WHY ENGAGE

INFLUENCE CURRICULUM

The future workforce is shaped in our classrooms, and your input ensures we get it right. By engaging with UCF, you can help guide curriculum development and skills training that align with the changing demands of your industry.

College of Business Advisory Board

Sponsor: KPMG

Two partners from the Big Four accounting firm volunteer as board members to ensure future accountants graduate with the mindset and skills needed to succeed.

ADVANCE WORKFORCE READINESS

Through internships and skill-building, you can help train students and prepare them for a wide range of roles.

Blackstone LaunchPad

Sponsor: Blackstone Charitable Foundation

Blackstone Launchpad is a business incubator and entrepreneurial hub where industry partners coach and mentor students of all majors who are determined to launch companies that can take root locally and strengthen the Central Florida economy.

FIND YOUR FUTURE WORKFORCE

By collaborating with any of our more than 670 student organizations, you can identify and engage with the best and brightest minds this generation has to offer.

Collegiate Cyber Defense Club

Sponsor: Lockheed Martin

With over 200 active student members, Hack@UCF creates a dynamic environment where students enhance their cyber security skills while developing a solid foundation in ethical practices.

EXPAND PATHWAYS

Every year, 70,000 students enroll at UCF. You can broaden their perspectives – and their career options.

The EXCHANGE

Sponsor: FAIRWINDS

Throughout the academic year, UCF invites speakers representing industries from around the world to join campus experts in a lively conversation open to all students.

INCREASE YOUR BRAND VISIBILITY

When you show up on our campus as a guest speaker, sponsor or mentor, you do more than raise brand awareness. You build trust, visibility and influence.

Employer Takeover Day

Sponsor: Thales

For one day each year, Pegasus-level Employee Sponsors are invited to plan an all-day, customized recruitment and branding event to highlight your company.

BOOST YOUR CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY

Doing good is good business. Partnering with UCF lets you put your values into action – supporting programs that increase access and create long-term impact across our region and state.

Dean's Speaker Series

Sponsor: Addition Financial

Every month, UCF's world-class faculty deliver TED Talks-style presentations about their research and areas of expertise to the Orlando community.

Let's Work Together. Join leading companies that are already leveraging UCF's faculty and students to stay ahead of the curve. Whether you're looking to solve a complex problem, influence the future or invest in the next generation of talent, UCF is here to fuel your success.

PREPARE TO LAUNCH

At UCF, we harness the power of people and ideas through dynamic collaborations with industry, community and public sector organizations. The UCF Partnerships team serves as the “front door” to the university, acting as a corporate concierge to connect business needs with curated experts and departments across campus.

UCF is an academic, partnership and research leader in engineering and computer science, optics and lasers, modeling and simulation, hospitality, healthcare and video game design. Our objective is to forge partnerships that advance experiential learning, promote talent development, drive innovative research and deliver mutually beneficial outcomes.

FIVE AREAS OF FOCUS

As Florida’s premier engineering and technology university, we are actively investing in what we were founded to do and what we do best. UCF draws on the strength of interdisciplinary teams from 13 distinct colleges to work together to solve societal challenges and develop the next generation of solutions.
